Ko Wai Tātou | Who We Are

The New Zealand Council of Christian Social Services (NZCCSS) has six foundation members: the Anglican Care Network, Baptist Churches of New Zealand, Catholic Social Services, Presbyterian Support and the Methodist and Salvation Army Churches.

We represent more than 230 member organisations providing a range of community, health and social support services across Aotearoa. These organisations include some of the most recognised and highly regarded names in social service provision, and all are world famous in their own rohe. Their mahi informs our deep understanding of the everyday lives of Aotearoa New Zealand's most vulnerable as we work towards achieving a just and compassionate society for all.

We see this work as an extension of the mission of Jesus Christ, which we seek to fulfil through our commitment to giving priority to the poor and vulnerable, and to Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

Pūrongo a Pehitene Takirua | Co-Presidents' Report

Mā whero, mā pango ka oti ai te mahi

With red and black the work will be complete.

For nearly 55 years, the New Zealand Council of Christian Services (NZCCSS) has worked in partnership with members and communities to amplify the voices of unheard groups in Aotearoa New Zealand.

In this spirit of collaboration and shared leadership, also evoked in the above whakataukī, we shifted this year from a single President to two Co-Presidents and it is an honour for us both to serve in these roles together.

Our Secretariat team, ably led by Kaiwhakahaere Matua Nikki Hurst, has continued its excellent work through information sharing, advocacy and publications. The release of The Workforce Guide stands as a testament to their innovative approach in showcasing the depth and breadth of the people who make our sector hum. A warm thank you to everyone in the team, including those who left NZCCSS this year.

There have been changes in the Council too. We extend our gratitude to those who have moved on, Graham Munford, Raewyn Gardner and Peter Osborne. A warm welcome to Peter Bargh who has joined us. It is a privilege to guide and serve this organisation with you all.

Our Policy Groups (Children & Families, Older People, and newly focussed Equity & Inclusion) have begun working toward their three year plans. Ngā mihi to everyone giving their time, knowledge and experience to these groups.

Our commitment to Te Tiriti o Waitangi was reaffirmed during our second annual hui in June, this year at Te Noho Kotahitanga Marae. This commitment is something we aim to show through our actions not only within the work we put into the world but also the fabric of our organisation.

Thank you for your continued support, dedication, and passion for the mission of NZCCSS. Together, we will continue to make a lasting impact on our communities.

"Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labour: If either of them falls down, one can help the other up. But pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up." - Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

Pūrongo a Kaiwhakahaere Matua Executive Officer's Report

Me mahi tahi tatou mō te oranga o te katoa
We should work together for the wellbeing of all

It continues to be an immense privilege to lead the Secretariat and serve our members. As I look back over this reporting year (July 2022 to June 2023), it's wonderful to see the work of the last two years come together. We continue to be grateful for the support and leadership of the Council, and the relationships and partnerships that underpin our mahi.

The overarching aim of the secretariat is to be useful – firstly to our membership, then to those they serve and also to Aotearoa more widely. This annual report showcases the mahi that our team produced, and that we hope achieves that aim.

We are particularly proud of the production of The Workforce Guide – our A-Z of showcasing the immense variety of roles across our sector, and the Housing and Support Providers Tool – a searchable database of housing provision and support.

As we move into the 2023/2024 year, we continue to plan for change, challenge and the opportunities before us. Aotearoa will be facing an election that seems set to focus on issues crucial to those we serve.

NZCCSS stands ready to advocate for the honouring of the articles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and for a more just and compassionate society in which we can all thrive. We will aim to clarify complexity and make accessible information to support informed choices. And we will hold to account failures of truth, hope or compassion.

The coming year will also see the continued emergence of our three-year plan, clarifying the focus of our organisation as we move forward. The team and I are deeply excited for the possibilities and potential of an enhanced focus. We are dreaming big dreams, and hope that you are too.

Rise up, take courage and do it.
Ezra 10:4
God bless.

Rōpu Kaupapa Here: Tamariki me ngā Whānau Policy Group: Children and Families

NZCCSS has a commitment to upholding the dignity of all people, which includes seeing the best interests of children and young people realised in the decisions that are made within our society.

The Children & Families Policy Group has a particular focus on advancing policies that improve the situation for the communities we serve and seek to work with government to provide clear processes and adequate resources so that a full range of child and family services are delivered appropriately.

This year has seen the group focused on exploring the context of middle childhood (5-12 years) in Aotearoa, to increase understanding of this age stage, and the systems and services that currently exist within our communities to support this group of tamariki. We observe that Aotearoa has a strong focus on early childhood and youth audiences and wish to progress awareness of middle childhood as an important period in child development.

This exploration has seen us hear from experts in the sector through a series of workshops and guest speakers. It has been invaluable to hear from those involved and thank each participant for their input. We are grateful to have received funding from The Tindall Foundation to enable this mahi.

The group plans to publish findings in the first half of 2024, with a view to gathering interested parties to discuss opportunities to strengthen support for middle childhood. We look forward to collaborating with others to progress next steps in our advocacy.

Alongside this research, we have been engaged in readying ourselves to raise the profile of children and young people throughout the election process, primarily through the development of policy scorecards, blog posts and involvement in the Tick for Kids coalition.

Our involvement in submissions has been less active this year due to our research into middle childhood taking a focus – however we have continued to speak into legislative changes relating to children and young people including those associated with Oranga Tamariki, Childcare Assistance, the Family Court and lowering the voting age. You can read our submissions here.

The Children & Families Policy Group as at year end comprised Luis Arevalo – Convenor (Catholic Diocese of Christchurch), Steph Brook (Anglican Diocese of Auckland), Kercheval Conrad (Salvation Army Hamilton), Simon Coventry (Presbyterian Support South Canterbury), Kamau Holland (Catholic Social Services Wellington), Kallysa Hollis (Methodist Mission Christchurch), Renee Rewi (Catholic Family Support Services Waikato) & Dr Prudence Stone (Presbyterian Support).

Also part of the group through the year were: Tracey-Leigh Peters - Convenor (Iosis), Graeme Munford (Catholic Family Support Services), Judy Matai'a (Anglican Trust for Women), Rawiri Auty (VisionWest), Catherine Jones (Catholic Archdiocese of Wellington) and Andrea McKenzie (Wesley Community Action).

Policy Group: Equity & Inclusion

The Impacts of Poverty and Social Exclusion portfolio has a long history of housing related advocacy. We had several strong outcomes in this space the 2022/2023 year. The release this year of the online NZCCSS Housing and Support Providers Tool, the publication of a series of blogs surrounding the issues found in our Housing continuum have been well received. Strong advocacy around the issue of social housing redirects, including a meeting with the Minister, wrapped up the work we have done in the housing space as we move the policy group on to new avenues. We are proud of the work this policy group has done regarding housing, and we hope that our members find these resources to be valuable.

Our change in the groups strategic direction was accompanied by a name change for this policy group. We wanted the organisation's focus on Christian Hope to reframe our purpose and intent. This led us to "Equity and Inclusion" as our new title, which is the core of the group's purpose.

Overall, NZCCSS submitted on thirty-two submissions, consultations, and long-term insights briefings in the 2022/2023 year. While all the work at NZCCSS is towards stronger equity and justice for all New Zealanders, twenty-two of these are directly related to the ethos of the Equity and Inclusion policy group, notably the input into the Grocery Sector Code of Conduct, Transitional Housing Code of Practice, and Worker and Mass Migration Bills.

We have continued to engage on issues surrounding Working for Families, Childcare supplementation, and Child Support pass-on changes. This ropū is regularly involved in ministerial advisory consultations, and we value the opportunity to ensure that our values and membership are represented at this level.

In the coming year we are looking forward to focussing on the election and advocating for policies that we hope will positively impact equity and inclusion.

As ever, we are grateful for the incredible dedication of our policy group members, who provide us with their time, experience and insight, as well as valuable information from across the motu. We appreciate their continued dedication in light of the challenges of the last year.

Impacts of Poverty & Exclusion policy group members for this year were:

Sarah Mulcahy – Convenor (Anglican Care, Waiapu), Carol Barron (Methodist Alliance, National), Sister Catherine Jones (Missionary Sisters of the Society of Mary, Archdiocese of Wellington), Dr Prudence Stone (Presbyterian Support, National), Mike Tonks (Catholic Social Services, Dunedin), and Naomi Tuipulotu (Housing First, Christchurch).

Rōpu Kaupapa Here: Ngā Kaumātua

Policy Group: Older Persons

The mana of NZCCSS is steeped deeply in our dedication and commitment to advocacy for older New Zealanders. We consider it a particular privilege of our organisation to bring awareness to and advocate for the rights and care of our kaumātua.

Our membership involved in Age Related Residential Care continue to be focused on the ongoing process of pay equity claims, settlements, challenges to relatively and increasingly tenuous arrangements. Alongside frequent funding-related bed closures, we have seen a notable increase in stresses from multiple avenues affecting our providers, their staff, and the older New Zealanders who rely on these community Age Related Residential Care providers for their later years. We acknowledge the work done by other organisations in projecting how these current shortfalls in capacity will play out with our aging population and share their concern. Our work has therefore is deeply involved in the production of solutions for the complex issue of how to repair Aged Residential Care in Aotearoa.

This workstream commenced with the production of an in-depth report contextualising older people in Aotearoa in their current state, due for publication early in the next financial year, and proceeded with an overview of the continuum of care opportunities for older people. We envision using these as the bedrock for the development of an “Aotearoa Aged Care Action Plan” – a cross sector plan aiming to provide real solutions to deeply embedded problems. We know our providers hold the solution to the crisis they find themselves in, and we are committed to advocating for the help needed.

Our policy work has resulted in nine submissions, consultations and Long-Term Insights Briefings impacting older people, ranging from health to housing. We look for all opportunities we can to ensure that older people remain visible and accounted for in legislation and policy.

As part of our Election coverage, we will be highlighting the policies of all parties as they related to older New Zealanders. Our “Tick for Older People” will help those most affected by the policies understand how the parties will account for them in policy.

We are incredibly grateful to our policy group members, who provide insight, information and perspective that is critical to the work of the analyst. Especially in light of the current stresses of the sector, their dedication to this mahi is deeply appreciated.

Older persons group membership this year: Hilda Johnson-Bogaerts - Convenor (Howick Baptist Healthcare); Bonnie Robinson, (Presbyterian Support Northern); Nicola Turner (Enliven Central); Carol Barron (Methodist Alliance, National); Grant Taylor (Spectrum Care); Murray Penman (VisionWest Community Trust Waka Whakakitenga); Luis Arevalo (Catholic Social Services, Christchurch).

Kore Hiakai Zero Hunger Collective

Kore Hiakai Zero Hunger Collective express their deep gratitude to the New Zealand Council of Christian Social Services for the care given to this project over the last four and a half years as we have emerged from an idea and conversation around the NZCCSS board table in 2018 to become a stand-alone charitable trust, Kai Rawa Trust from 1 July 2023.

From the wisdom at the NZCCSS board table, within your member organisations and amongst the research and data gathered over many years around food assistance across our communities Kore Hiakai has a strong foundation. We value the partnerships that continue, your leadership, your holding of our Kaupapa and the willingness let go of it so that we could develop it and expand it.

The narrative of food and resource distribution is held so deeply within the Christian narrative and within our sacred scriptures from the creation narrative, to wandering in the desert, to Jesus sharing a picnic with thousands, fishing with the disciples and gathering his friends around a table, to Peter's vision involving food and inclusion, to the epistles speaking of hospitality and the nature of unconditional love. Together we have been able to give a glimpse of how our sacred texts can be authentically lived out in community and in places of decision making. Kore Hiakai are very grateful.

In the 12 months of this financial year our significant projects have been:

- having two Kaihononga travelling across the motu connecting with communities learning the wisdom of community food innovations and releasing accessible report to community on fruit and veggie co-ops, social supermarkets and community meals,
- continuation of the Community Food Distributors map - 705 individual entries, representing around 381 organisations working in the food security space (excluding duplicate listings). This is comprised of: 210 Foodbanks, 9 Social Supermarket/ More Choice, 68 Food Rescue organisations, 65 Pataka Kai, 86 organisations providing community meals, 25 Bellyful sites (family meal support), 324 community gardens, 287 Schools (271 Garden to Table, 16 Oke), 25 Fruit & Vege co-ops (including Foodtogether central), and 54 NZFN hubs
- the release of our two main reports 'Realising Food Secure Communities in Aotearoa' which gathers the wisdom and insights of food security plans from communities across the motu and Ka Mākona 2022 – report on Income Adequacy and the Cost of Living.
- Short report on government overpayment debt and submission to the Debt to government consultation
- Submission to the Grocery Commission Code of Conduct
- Developing research on Māori Kai Sovereignty – to be released in the 2023-4 year.
- Contributing to the Mana Kai Initiative Report, the ongoing development of a National Food Strategy and engaging in the various cross government conversations about food security.
- The initial stages of an ongoing conversation with Pasifika organisations about Pacific food security in Aotearoa including a project of Pacific Income Adequacy
- Coordinating the dashboard and data of community food organisations on the Aotearoa Food Parcel Measure

The Tenants Advocacy Network

The Tenants Advocacy Network (TAN) has been active across the past year, with 11 meetings occurring via Zoom, three National Meetings including time with Ministers Megan Woods, Marama Davidson and Barbara Edmonds, and two Regional Meetings in Tauranga and Ōtautahi Christchurch.

A key focus of these meetings has been the current cost-of-living and its impact on renters, as well as drawing attention to areas in legislation resulting in negative outcomes for sections of the renting population.

TAN has extensively consulted on a regulation model/code of conduct for Transitional Housing providers, both on a group basis and as individual organisations. This involved meetings with HUD and attendance in their group consultations. TAN has also advocated for similar regulation to be extended to Emergency Housing.

TAN members have consulted with Tenancy Services in their ongoing work to improve the accessibility and usefulness of their website, with ESL renters and renters who need answers to complex questions being top of mind.

TAN has continued to bring attention at the parliamentary level to issues such as rising costs of renting, rights gaps for renters who fall outside the Residential Tenancies Act, and efforts to raise Healthy Homes compliance of rental properties. The issues of funding continuity and sufficiency for Tenants' Advocates is front of mind, alongside backlogs in accessing public housing.

TAN continues to be a key space for regional and national connection and communication across the sector. NZCCSS are proud to support the TAN as both members, and as administrators for the group. We thank the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Enterprise for their support and commitment to hearing the perspectives of renters and those who advocate for them.

In November 2022, we released 'The Workforce Guide' – designed to support understanding of the variety of roles across the social, community and health workforce, and of its under-recognised strength.

The guide is for those whose mahi influences this workforce. Gaining a better understanding of the contribution of this sector – through resources such as this guide – we are better able to value those who are hard at work in ensuring their communities thrive.

Pūrongo Kaitātari kaute | Auditor's report

Report on the Performance Report

Opinion

We have audited the performance report of the NEW ZEALAND COUNCIL OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICES on pages 14 to 28, which comprise the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2023, the statements of financial performance, entity information, service performance, and cash flows for the year ended, the statement of accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion:

- a) the reported outcomes and outputs, and quantification of the outputs to the extent practicable, in the statement of service performance are suitable;
- b) the performance report on pages 14 to 28 presents fairly, in all material respects:
 - the financial position of the NEW ZEALAND COUNCIL OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICES as at 30 June 2023 and of its financial performance and cash flows;
 - the entity information and the service performance, for the year ended, in accordance with Public Benefit Entity Simple Format Reporting – Accrual (Not-For-Profit) [PBE-SFR-A-NFP] issued in New Zealand (NZ) by the NZ Accounting Standards Board.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the statement of financial performance, statement of financial position, statement of cash flows, statement of accounting policies and notes to the performance report in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (NZ), and the audit of the entity information and statement of service performance in accordance with the International Standard on Assurance Engagements (NZ) ISAE (NZ) 3000 (Revised). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Performance Report section of our report. We are independent of NEW ZEALAND COUNCIL OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICES in accordance with Professional and Ethical Standard 1

(Revised) Code of Ethics for Assurance Practitioners issued by the NZ Auditing and Assurance Standards Board and the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (IESBA Code), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion. Other than in our capacity as auditor we have no relationship with, or interests in, the NEW ZEALAND COUNCIL OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICES.

Restriction on responsibility

This report is made solely to the council members, as the governance, in accordance with section 42F of the Charities Act 2005, and the constitution of the entity. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the governance those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the governance as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Governance Responsibility for the Performance Report

The governance is responsible for:

- a) identifying outcomes and outputs, and quantifying the outputs to the extent practicable, that are relevant, reliable, comparable and understandable, to report in the statement of service performance;
- b) the preparation and fair presentation of the performance report which comprises:
 - the entity information;
 - the statement of service performance; and
 - the statement of financial performance, statement of financial position, statement of cash flows, statement of accounting policies and notes to the performance report in accordance with

PBE-SFR-A-NFP issued in NZ by the NZ Accounting Standards Board, and
c) for such internal control as the governance determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a performance report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the performance report, the governance is responsible for assessing the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the governance either intends to liquidate the entity or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Performance Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the performance report is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (NZ) and ISAE (NZ) 3000 (Revised) will always detect a material mis-statement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this performance report.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs (NZ) and ISAE (NZ) 3000 (Revised), we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the performance report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, mis-representations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
 - Conclude on the appropriateness of the use of the going concern basis of accounting by the governance and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the performance report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the entity to cease to continue as a going concern.
 - Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the performance report, including the disclosures, and whether the performance report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
 - Perform procedures to obtain evidence about and evaluate whether the reported outcomes and outputs, and quantification of the outputs to the extent practicable, are relevant, reliable, comparable and understandable.
- We communicate with the governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
